

We have the great privilege to be God's ambassadors, through whom He makes His appeal (2 Corinthians 5:20). God says of those who share His Gospel with those who don't know: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring Good News" (Isaiah 52:7, Romans 10:15)!

These resources can equip you in doing that:

- 3 circles in 3 minutes (a Gospel conversation tool)→
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lcj5G_4dwrl&t=53s
- 15-second testimony (writing a short personal testimony)→
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hkprflNySS8>
- Helpful openers, depending on the setting:
 - "Hi. We are out here this afternoon just caring about people. How are you doing?" "May I ask you a question?.....If God would do a miracle in your life today, what would you want him to do for you?" If they answered the above question and seem to be giving some time, maybe ask, "Has anyone ever shared with you the 3 circles Gospel before?....It only takes a few minutes.

(continued from previous slide)

May I show you?" If they don't offer much time, ask: "May I have just 15 seconds of your time to share with you my story?"

"Do you have anything that you would like us to pray for?"

- These books may be helpful to you in developing as God's ambassador:
 - Gospel Fluency: Speaking the Truths of Jesus into the Everyday Stuff of Life by Jeff Vanderstelt
 - Radical Outreach: the Recovery of Apostolic Ministry and Evangelism by George Hunter
 - Reimagining Apologetics: The Beauty of Faith in a Secular Age by Justin Bailey
 - Telling a Better Story by Josh Chatraw (also a good book on apologetics)
 - Encountering the World of Islam by Keith Swartley (learn much on Islam)
 - A Search for Common Ground: Let's Talk by Fred Wilgenburg (on cultural relevance and descriptions of various religions)
 - Superplan: A Journey into God's Story by Chris Clayman (on cultural relevance)